

Series: Untamed Mercy

Sermon: Is Mercy A License to Kill?

Bible Verses: James 2:12-17

By: Jeff Piepho

Date: February 12, 2011

Question: Is untamed about mercy a license to _____ we want?

How should we live? As people who are going to be judged by the "law that _____."

The Old Testament contained many laws, and the Jews had many more traditional laws on top of that. It was a very controlled and _____ way to live. The burden was _____.

"The law that gives freedom" is this: having _____ saves us, not following strict religious rules (it is _____ from God).

Some of the Jews who followed Jesus became _____. This means they believed God demanded _____ them, because it was all about mercy.

If we are _____ merciful to others, God will _____ be merciful to us!

We don't have to follow _____ to be saved, but God's mercy does come with an expectation - we will be _____ too.

If my faith is not _____ good deeds, then it is _____ faith.

We must have _____ to accompany our _____ in God.

Don't believe the _____ that just _____ for people is sufficient action to call yourself a good Christian.

God has been extremely merciful to me. So, I should also be extremely merciful to _____, both in how I feel towards them and how _____.

Practical Application:

Name of person I need to be merciful to: _____

Action I can take to live out mercy: _____

Name of person I need to be merciful to: _____

Action I can take to live out mercy: _____

Name of person I need to be merciful to: _____

Action I can take to live out mercy: _____