I should do everything without _____ or _____ (Philippians 2:14).

- Complaining is the muttering and _____ from discontentment.
- Arguing is the _____ and sometimes mean-spirited disputes with other people.

The right way to handle "people issues" when you disagree or aren't getting along:

Option 1: Discuss the situation _____, and calmly, with the person you disagree with.

Option 2: _____, overlooking the disagreement offense, without thinking about it again; choosing joy instead (sometimes it might require offering forgiveness if there was sin, sometimes it just means moving on and doing good).

In fact I should do _____ this way (no complaining or arguing); even the really difficult stuff.

I should be _____ and pure.

THREE POINTS ABOUT OUR ATTITUDE

#1) When I stop complaining and arguing, then _____ what God wants me to be (blameless and pure, etc)!

Philippians 2:14-15a

Do everything without complaining or arguing, _____ you may become blameless and pure

I should be _____ people about Jesus, holding out the "word of life" (the good news about God).

#2) If I am complaining and arguing I _____ to those around me who need Jesus!

#3) If my attitude is one of complaining and arguing my Spiritual leaders will not be able to _____ in my life.

- My Pastor is _____ when I am _____, and will be filled with joy when Jesus rewards me.

The opposite of complaining/arguing: Paul says he, and the Philippians, are living to sacrifice themselves for _____ benefit. It is _____ to God.

- This is an _____ from selfishness to sacrifice.
