Romans 12: "As far as it depends on you, _____."

The reason this command exists is because of our _____ and Satan's temptation. They push us to _____ have division, discord, anger, and broken relationships.

I will be subject to judgment if I am _____ at people. Why? Anger towards another person comes from _____.

Jesus says if someone has something against me I _____ go and attempt _____!

Reconcile: to change feelings towards, _____ a state of peace. It's active.

People who are _____, are in danger of judgment (or even hell).

If I _____ help reconcile the relationship, I am acting out of hatred, not love.

We believe in _____ - but, first, reconciliation.

Jesus' death reconciled us to God: it changed God's feelings towards us, and _____ a state of peace between us and God. His love was _____ to the point of _____ for us though we sinned against him!
