

Series: God Still Speaks

Sermon: Don't Miss His Voice

Bible Verses: Luke 24:1-45

By: Jeff Piepho

Date: 4-1-18

“Open your _____, or you’ll miss the _____.”

God is still active _____. He is speaking _____, but do I know how to pay attention?

Problem: I rely on my _____ or signs so much that I _____ what God is doing!

Ways that God spoke, but Jesus’ followers missed it:

○ Jesus said he’d return from the dead, and they _____.

If God makes something clear to me, I must _____ and “stand on it” and not _____.

○ There were _____ witnesses who were honest and _____ Jesus who told the truth.

If I get advice from wise, God-fearing, Jesus-loving people, _____.

○ The _____ was there, but it seemed to incredible to believe.

I’ll follow the _____, wherever it leads, even if it’s incredible.

○ The evidence was there, but they were trying to come up with _____.

If I know what God wants, I won’t try to find “_____.”

○ God’s _____ the resurrection would happen.

If I read God’s word, I can know _____ God wants from me, and what to expect.

Take it home: (1) I will _____ and pay more attention to what God is doing, than my feelings. (2) I will pray that God opens my mind. (3) And, I’ll _____ for the next few weeks to learn exactly how to understand when God is telling me something.

Come back to hear the rest of our new series, “God Still Speaks.”

God is speaking to you, today. It’s not hocus-pocus or anything weird – it’s practical. There are some real ways to know what God is telling you. So, come back and learn how to hear what God is saying.

It will change your life for good.