Sermon: Having Hope Again, After Your Hopes Fail

Bible Verse: Exodus 2, 1 Thess 4:11-12

By: Pastor Jeff Piepho Date: 9-9-18

Born a slave, Moses was _____ by Egyptian royalty and was raised as _____.

Moses took multiple actions to try and _____, the Israelites.

Moses _____ his people would realize he was their deliverer, but they _____!

A.W. Tozer said, "It is doubtful whether God can _____ a man greatly until He has _____ him deeply."

When my hopes and dreams _____,
God's plan can _____.

Moses, the Prince, became _____ for his father-in-law for forty years. God needed Moses to experience a _____ to be ready for God's plan.

Question for me: What is _____ striving for? What is my ambition?

I should STRIVE to live a life that is _____ (quiet), _____ (work hard), and _____ (mind my own business).

Practical Application: When I'm living life, or even facing the loss of my hopes and dreams, I should focus on a different type of _____. I should look for quiet, simple ways to _____ people. I need to keep an honest job where I can work hard, _____ own business, and be a good neighbor.

Growth Group Prep:

- What are some of the ambitions, hopes, and dreams you have right now? What are some you lost?
- Which of the three "S" words above do you need to work on the most (I should STRIVE to live...).
- If God doesn't allow someone to hurt, is that person still usable by God?
