Sermon: Overconfidence Kills

By: Jeff Piepho

Bible Verses: 1 Corinthians 10:1-13

Date: April 2, 2023

Don't be so confident that God _____.

Don't scorn _____ of sin.

An example for me: The Israelites were overconfident. They thought they were standing firm, but _____ things at the same time. So, God killed them.

Paul's examples of Israel loving evil:

1. _____. Because of this God commanded them to kill each other, blotted their names out of his book, and struck them with a plague.
2. _____. Because of this God's anger burned and over 20,000 people died from a plague until a Priest stopped the plague by driving a spear through a couple ignoring God's commands.
3. _____. Because they constantly didn't trust and spoke against God, the Lord sent poisonous snakes to them.
4. _____. Because they grumbling and revolted against God's ways (and his chosen leaders) God sent a plague.

Good Promises:

1. I won't be tempted beyond what I can bear. So _____.
2. When I am tempted God will provide _____.
3. Jesus saves me if I believe, _____, and repent.

Practical Application:

When I'm confident that God is okay with where I'm at, or where I'm going, it's a good _____. https://www.revo.church/th_sermon/overconfidence-kills/

Repentance with _____ and accountability.

_____ action. "Cutting out our eyes."

I must see the _____ as higher than the sweetness of sin so I must place _____ on things above. (Philippians 4.)

Where do I need to wage war today? I need to take this as serious as I would a _____ between nations.
