Sermon: Gift of Tongues, its Proper Place

By: Jeff Piepho

Bible Verses: 1 Corinthians 14

Date: July 30, 2023

I should build the Church with _____ and _____,
Not focus on self for _____ and _____.

The local Church is “_____” and “the people who” _____, committed to each other, to serve God, worship God, serve each other, hold each other accountable, and speak about and experience God’s grace together in a long-term relationship.

The purpose of spiritual gifts/manifestations is for the “_____ good”: the benefit _____ as a whole.

The gift of tongues originally existed to benefit people who _____.

If I cannot interpret what I’m saying in tongues it’s _____ is unfruitful even if my spirit feels good while I’m doing it.

God wants my gifts to be used, _____, to benefit others.

Practical Application

My presence in the Church should _____ and _____ the Church.

Ask: am I doing that?

Practical Application

God wants our Church to be _____ and not chaotic. I cannot bring chaos, especially not on purpose.

Practical Application

I need to find my _____ abilities and use them in the Church.

Practical Application

RevoKids need training to _____ for the next generation. They need high quality people who will work with them to understand the Church, their gifts, and _____, mentor them, train them in all kinds of ways, and remind them of the Lord Jesus.

Practical Application

Prophecy (and teaching) is more important than tongues because prophecy (speaking God’s message, teaching his truth) helps us all. I should _____, and learn _____ to communicate God’s truth.

Practical Application

God wants our service to be practical, not just “chills and thrills.” My growth group will need my help, practically. When someone goes to the hospital, loses a job, sins and needs confrontation, I _____ in a practical way.
