MY CHOICES:

A _____ and self-control or indulge now then _____ control.

Proverbs 13:11

Dishonest money dwindles away, but whoever gathers money _____ makes it grow.

Two types of people, financially:

The wise who _____ and the fools who _____.

Saving and storing is more difficult than using. Fools focus on _____, because right now “the thing” looks good, sounds good, smells good, and seems good.

To store up properly I must have a budget, _____.

Wise people focus their money on things that will lead to _____ instead of _____.

Having self-control:

If I am a follower of Jesus I should recognize the _____ self-discipline if I will just use it.

A. I should _____ my self-control after them or at least get advice (i.e. buddies who are doing better than me financially).

B. I should _____ like FPU. Put it on your red card to sign up, starts March 1st!

C. I should embrace temporary _____ because I’m living with long-term goals in mind and not short-term pleasures.

If I follow this advice God’s word teaches, I will have _____, plenty of choice food, and be able to leave an inheritance for my _____!
