How do I deal with the people that _____ me?

The Bible said to "love your neighbor as yourself" (Leviticus 19:18), but people _____ the "as yourself" part.

People also added "and _____ your _____."

Jesus teaches we should _____ our _____.

When Jesus said that it likely _____ his audience.

The word for love is _____. Loving your enemy should involve some emotional attachment, but it must include _____ of some kind.

1 Corinthians 13:4-7

4 Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. 5 It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. 6 Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. 7 It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.

There is a _____ between loving your enemy and being a child of God.

The consequence of failing is a _____ of your relationship with God!

God is indiscriminate in his _____.

He is even kind to those who _____ him.
