

Series: Little Things

Sermon: A Talent for Serving

Bible Verses: Matthew 25:14-29

By: Jeff Piepho

Date: 7/23/2010

Maud Muller

For all sad words of tongue or pen, the saddest are these: " _____!"

Servants in Jesus' day often were left _____ of their master's homes, and expected to carry on business for the boss being profitable, wise, and even _____ their master's business.

Link to us: Jesus has given us abilities and everything we need to carry on his work _____. We are his servants.

Note that the master in this story bases his _____ according to his servants ability!

This parable Jesus told is about serving God and taking action. It's about _____.

One many in the story "put his money to work" - this implies working _____, day after day after day.

One of the servants in the story doesn't do anything _____, but he doesn't _____ anything either.

The master's response to the good servant is _____, and nothing negative.

Some people will be _____ of things in the _____, others will not!

One of the servants in the story doesn't bring a return on his Master's _____. This is similar to people who know God exists, even go _____, but don't really live to serve Jesus.

The result of knowing God exists but not doing anything about it is _____.

Who is it that gets rewarded and goes to Heaven? The people that _____ what God gives them.

Edwards #5

Resolved, never to lose _____ of time; but improve it the most profitable way I possibly can.

- By "most profitable" he meant anything that ensured him a _____.

Resolved: Not to waste my life, but to live in a such a way that, when I die, I will be looking forward to the great rewards awaiting me.

Signed - _____