

Series: Inside God 2 - The Attributes of Our Creator

Sermon: God's Aseity (self-existence)

Bible Verses: Exodus 3:13-15

By: Jeff Piepho

Date: 1-20-13

INCORRECT VIEWS

Open Theism: The belief that God knows all _____ outcomes of the future, but not which of those will come to pass.

Kusher says God does not have the power to stop bad things from happening, he is limited.

Often, finite godism beliefs arise from Theists who cannot reconcile an all-powerful and all-good God with the presence of evil in the world.

God reveals his name as " _____."

God is without beginning. Nothing _____ him. God exists beyond the " _____" in either direction, past or future - and nothing brought him into existence, he just ____.

Novatian: "God has no origin."

God is not limited! God is the one who _____ limits.

God's aseity, or _____, means that God came from nowhere and is derived from nothing. He was, and _____, and is to come.

We are desperately _____ people; our entire existence is dependent upon God.

Jesus claimed to be the "I AM" God who _____ all other things.

Practical Application:

1. Know that we had a beginning, and that is evidence that _____.
2. Whenever hearing theories that have to do with God being limited, be very _____.
3. Worship God as the one and only being who has always, and will always, _____.
4. Believe in and trust God as more _____ than we could ever fathom, because everything (even limits) come from Him.