Your _____ take a moment. Your life may take years. Your _____ throughout eternity.

- 1) My small and large decisions will add up to determine my _____.
- 2) I don't have forever to "get around to making a good _____."

John Piper, "Any good-hearted goal, without the desire to give people eternal joy in God, is condemnation with a kind face."

All legacies, deeds, and rewards are eventually _____;
_____ those things surrounding God and bringing people to Jesus.

Esther's viewpoint: "I will do what is right and NOBLE - and if I perish, _____."
Most people's viewpoint: "I will do what I feel like and I'll _____ like I won't perish." (Esther 4:15-16)

The Question: What will my legacy be? "Someone who was a _____, and did some good stuff." Or "A person who _____ for Jesus Christ."

I must keep things in perspective: the most important job I have is to spread the _____ about Jesus. To leave a legacy of sharing faith and love in God.

What do you want your legacy to be?

The thing I'll remember most about _____ was:
