There is only _____ (one Church) and, no matter how different, we are part of this family together.

God gives each of us _____ different gifts and _____.

The reason teachers, Pastors, and prophets exist is to equip God's people for works of _____.

God made different people with different abilities so that we work together like parts of a body working together, with a goal that we all become _____, together. In other words, my job is to _____ the Church and _____.

When we are all using our individual abilities to serve each other, and maintain unity, we can finally move into true Spiritual, practical, and emotional _____ in Jesus Christ!

Christianity provides the basis for a worldview where _____:

(1) _____ flourish and (2) we find _____ each other, without contradiction between those two things.

Using our individual gifts, while still being influenced by and unified with the Church, is makes us Spiritually and intellectually _____, and we _____ towards Jesus!
