Question: What if I'm failing? Or worse yet, what if I'm failing when I think I'm _____? How can I be truly _____ in the right way, in the right things, in life?

How should I live?

The struggle to do good is NOT a flesh & blood _____, it's _____!

That word for STRUGGLE is the word the military used for WRESTLE or _____!

There are TWO PROBLEMS:

1) We often live as though we are _____ instead of Satan.

2) We use our own _____ instead of God's _____.

We need _____, not our own practices and deeds!

_____ might make us think we're winning, but if it's _____ it's one of Satan's schemes.

Becoming "good people" _____ working in us looks like winning but it's still a _____ of God, and one of Satan's schemes.

I win when _____ in the Spiritual war and defeat Satan, sin, and death.

I must _____ every single day, to allow him to put a right heart and mind into me. I must put on (and learn) the _____ of God.

- Many people talk about Satan too much, and give him too much credit. Why can this be a dangerous topic, and why do some people get so obsessed about this topic - to the point of being weird? How do we avoid that?
- The opposite error is to not think about or believe in Satan much at all. Why do you think most people prefer to never talk about him, or pretend like he isn't real? How do we avoid that?
- What do you think is an appropriate amount of focus and thinking about Satan's work?
