

Series: Making Wise Decisions
Sermon: Do I Have a Gut Feeling?
By: Jeff Piepho

Bible Verses: Proverbs 13:16/Various
Date: May 8, 2022

_____ I trust my gut feeling? The little whisper? My intuition?

FACT #1: I must have the right _____ to make wise decisions.

FACT #2: I must have the _____ to carry out my decisions.

FACT #3: I can have an _____ of God's spirit speaking, my _____, and more.

Note: An awareness or gut feeling is not a prophecy and it's certainly _____.

Two types of discernments: _____ intuition and the _____ speaking.

_____ and become wise. – Prov 13:20

If I ask God for _____, he will give it. – James 1:5

If I genuinely want knowledge _____, I'll have it. – Prov 14:6

Things that give me more or less wisdom, more or less accurate gut-feelings, and more or less ability to hear the Spirit speaking are the _____ I've been in my whole life.

The Holy Spirit speaks in a _____ - not loud crashes and flashes.

The accuracy of my _____ relates to the maturity of my _____.

Practical

How to grow in intellectual awareness:

-

How to grow in spiritual awareness:

I will still listen to _____ and seek knowledge because sometimes God speaks to me through their intuition or gut feelings.

If my gut/intuition/awareness tells me to STOP, I should at least _____.

Next Week: Will this decision produce what _____ for me?