What do we do about disputable things when we think we're _____ and other Christians think we're _____?

This has implications for all disputable things like _____ tobacco, drinking, _____, politics, etc.

Knowledge "puffs up" – meaning it can make me prideful and thinking of myself instead of thinking about others. If I know for a fact that _____ it can make me uncaring towards others.

_____ is what builds people up.

God commands me to be careful that " _____ " doesn't become a " _____ " to those who view things differently than myself.

God says that I'm sinning if someone engages in something they thought was a sin because _____ engaging in it.

Practical Application:

I will choose _____ who disagree with me over exercising my rights.

I will continue to grow in knowledge of God. Knowledge isn't bad – it's essential. But, I'll remember that love God and others _____.

When Christians come to _____ (especially if I'm a Church leader) or when I go places I should consider how my actions and things in my home reflect on Jesus to others.

I should maintain a distinction between _____ and loving rules.

I cannot use "freedom" as an excuse to _____ or things that I cannot handle. I am a slave to whatever has mastered me.
