YIELDING to the Lord: PRAYER involves _____.

PATIENCE

Scripture says: "_____ the Lord..." (Psalm 27:14)

It's easier to move/_____/run/act than it is to listen, _____ the Lord, and be patient.

If I don't wait on God, it won't mess up God's plans. But it could _____.

Don't let _____ make you go _____.

I must recognize that God always does _____. While waiting, I don't need to know what's next, because I know God _____ and speak at the right time.

PRAYER

While the disciples waited for God, they prayed _____.

Practical Application: Hearing God looks like sitting _____. Pray and tell God your needs and what you would like to have happen, and ask what the right decision is. You can write it down. Wait. Sometimes ask God, "Is it right to do this?" Then wait. _____. Listen. "Or should I do that?" Then wait. Breathe. _____.

PEOPLE

I should seek wise God-fearing, Jesus following, jerk-friends when I have a _____ from God. And I must be open to the possibility _____ or just heard _____.

TAKE IT HOME:

I will memorize _____. I will spend time in prayer, listening. I will seek advice from jerk friends after I believe I've heard God. Additionally, I will be _____.
