I have _____ that live under the surface of my conscious thought that have put me where I am today _____.

Proverbs 13:7

One guy collects possessions and has lots of stuff, but has very little in the treasure chest; another guy looks like he has very little, but his treasure chest is full. The rich _____ and the poor _____.

Revolution Paraphrase

I have to get it out of my head that being wealthy means _____.

The book The Millionaire Next Door says the same thing as the Bible: "Wealth is the result of a _____ of hard work, perseverance, planning and, most of all, _____."

Ways people pretend to be rich:

- _____

Ways people pretend to be rich:

- car debt

- _____

Ways people pretend to be rich:

- car debt

- credit cards

- oversized _____ (budgets that use more than they should) and immature _____.

Wise people _____ what they have; foolish people _____ what they have.

To be able to save and increase my wealth I need to have (1) a desire for living _____ and (2) lots of _____. They must be running constantly below the surface of my mind. Much more so than my desire to _____ or look cool.

A good principle is to save around _____, or more.
