Sermon: Signs Are Shady

By: Jeff Piepho

Bible Verses: Mark 8:11-13

Date: May 18, 2025

God has spoken to people through signs before, and he may _____ a sign.

We'll remember how to handle signs, with the acronym _____.

"S" for _____.

Signs are _____ and not always _____, so approach this with caution.

"I" for _____.

How we _____ signs is crucial, and I need help.

I shouldn't interpret _____; I'll include my wise, Jesus loving, God fearing _____.

If I get _____ from God, it's not a "yes" or "no" from God. It's just no sign.

"G" for _____ like Gideon.

Gideon doesn't doubt God, but he wants a sign to know he's really dealing _____ and not a fake, but his motives are good.

We know Gideon's motives were good because he responded with worship _____, even though it may have cost him his life.

N for _____.

I cannot neglect or ignore the other ways God _____ spoke.

God already spoke through: Bible, _____, jerk friends, Spiritual _____, etc.

I shouldn't neglect the biggest sign of all: _____. _____ and sacrifice for me, the way he lived teaches me, the words he shared, and everything about his life informs me of what God wants.

S for Satanic.

_____, _____, etc are fake, demonic, or satanic and are not signs.

Practical Application

I will look to (1) Jesus, (2) God's word, (3) wisdom and (4) jerk-friends as _____.

I'll also _____ the SIGNS acronym to help understand signs better.
