Main Idea: Israel had numerous rules and _____,
but little repentance or _____ with God.

The fig tree should've had something, even a _____ evidence of fruit to come, but it _____.

Jesus and scripture are making an analogy: the fig tree _____.

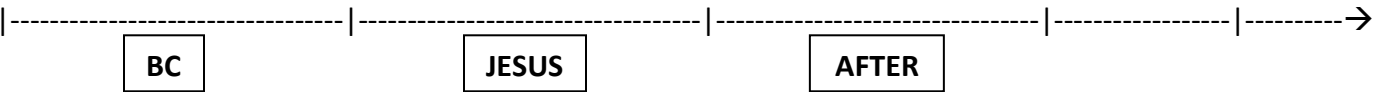

Instead of treating the temple as God's most holy place,
it was a place of _____.

The tree that Jesus _____, which represented Israel, _____.

Jesus' said people would _____ from the tree again. Forty years later, the Temple was _____ has never been rebuilt. The Nation of Israel rejected Jesus, and now to come to God, the Nation of Israel doesn't have _____ and you cannot find by seeking him there.

Practical Application:

I should _____ fruit to see if I'm likely to inherit eternal life or be destroyed.

If I believe I must allow God to change me instead of having a _____ or merely doing my religious _____ like the Israelites in Jesus' time.

It doesn't depend entirely on me; if I ask God, he will give me the Holy Spirit _____!
