Sermon: Jesus, the Rejected Cornerstone

By: Jeff Piepho

Bible Verses: Mark 12:1-12

Date: February 1, 2026

I don't like to be _____ about _____.

THE MAIN IDEA: Rejecting _____ begins with resisting _____.

Jesus is _____ Earth. He created _____ things and _____ things were created _____ him!

God wanted to _____ (his vineyard) to bless _____ on Earth!

God placed _____ in Israel. Their job was to "tend to his vineyard" and bring the blessing.

The Jewish leaders _____ persecuted and killed prophets God sent to them.

The current Jewish leadership says, "I wouldn't kill the prophets like other people did!"
but they _____ Jesus' teachings or accepting him.

After the owner sent all his servants, he _____...

God sends his son, Jesus, to save people from their sins. But whoever rejects Jesus, God will _____ those people.

Practical Application:

The Jewish leaders _____ even though he was the cornerstone. They consistently rejected God's _____. Do I reject God's commands or his work in my life?

I should memorize Proverbs 12:1. "Whoever _____ loves knowledge, but he who hates correction is _____."

I should think through what corrections have been brought to me that _____.

I should let down _____, confess, and accept correction.

If I'm going to accept correction, I'd better think through _____.

Am I looking towards people who are doing things God's way or people who make me feel better about where I'm at? I'm I shooting for _____ path, or just _____?
