Big Idea about Jesus: He is _____,
my Messiah, and should be worshiped and honored.

Big Idea for Me: God will lead and _____ but he won't _____ or manipulate.

The Messiah would be a descendant _____.

The “_____” (in Mark 12 and Psalm 110) of the Lord is a _____.
It is equal to the power and rank of God himself because the Bible often describes the right hand of God as his own attribute (Ex. 15:6; Pss. 20:6; 44:3; 60:5; 89:13).

Putting his feet on the necks of his enemies is another Mark 12/Psalm 110 prophetic reference to the Messiah having _____. Especially when paired with being/being at God's right hand.

Crazy fact: Jews always believed Psalm 110 was _____.
But _____ lived, died, and rose from the dead, many Jews stopped saying Psalm 110 was about the Messiah.

Crazy fact: This crowd was _____ and loved to hear Jesus teaching these things. But, a few days later they were shouting, “_____!”

Practical Applications:

- I can do a public vs private test. The crowds were delighted at Jesus and then turned on him. In what ways do I love Jesus at church but not at home?

- Jesus should be elevated higher than I think in _____, even though he won't force that right now. I should actually worship and praise him (_____), I should bow down (physically and metaphorically with my decisions), and honor him as the High King _____ in his Kingdom (www.revo.church/serve)
- The crowd turned on Jesus. I should ask myself, “If _____ honored Jesus as Lord, would I?” How would people know that I honor Jesus as Lord?
