

Series: Mark (Jesus - the Son of God)

Sermon: Redemption from Over-Confidence

By: Jeff Piepho

Bible Verses: Mark 14:27-31 and Psalm 130

Date: May 31, 2026

Peter overconfidently declared that _____,
and even if everyone else fell away he _____ would!!

This world is _____ because of sin, and it started long before I existed.

When I'm broken the best and first place to go: to the _____.

When I feel stuck in the depths of sin, there is _____.

Extra note: When we _____ to forgive ourselves, we're holding on to something _____.

Jesus not only forgives but he grants us his _____.

God not only forgives, he _____ us for the years _____ in sin and failures.

Why don't I "wait for the Lord with my whole being"? The negative patterns:

- Problem: we don't believe our _____/we're pretty good people we'll never long for God.
- Problem: I believe the situation is _____. Maybe God can forgive me, but this _____ be fixed.
- Problem: I try to find healing/redemption in _____.
- I simply accepted _____ but haven't been waiting or believing in _____ REDEMPTION.

With God there is forgiveness and I _____, my whole being waits, because with him is FULL REDEMPTION! God will heal and restore and redeem me! I don't fear my failures because my God is _____! I don't fear my past. I look forward to today because today I will resist temptation, serve God, and see him at work!

Practical Application:

1. Avoid the _____ that trap me in hopelessness (above)
2. Picture what full redemption could possibly _____ and _____ in my head.
3. Cry out to God for FULL REDEMPTION and wait for him with your _____.