In desperate times my faith will _____ or face its _____.

FACT: _____ escapes pain and desperation.

By coming to Jesus Jairus _____, job, friendships – pretty much everything.

Even after he is informed his daughter _____, Jairus puts his hope in Jesus (not caring what shame others might put on him for thinking a _____
_____).

Reality: People told Jairus to leave Jesus _____, they _____ at him and Jesus.

The woman also suffered the shame of sickness, poverty, and being _____ _____ and community. It was illegal to approach or touch Jesus. She took a
_____.

Reality: the woman was _____ and people would have _____ her faith in Jesus.

Bigger reality: Both Jairus and the woman _____ through faith in Jesus! They took a risk and it paid off.

God _____, in my most desperate situation. But I gotta take the risk to _____ him and _____ him in.

Practical Application:

- 1) I will pray _____ and follow Jesus no matter the _____.
- 2) I will be in a growth group (or youth group) to be around people who will _____ my faith in the middle of my desperate times.
- 3) As a parent, I will live my big faith in front of my children to _____ we have a big God.
