

Series: Mark (Jesus - the Son of God)

Sermon: The Spirit is Willing but the Flesh is Weak

By: Jeff Piepho

Bible Verses: Mark 14:32-42

Date: Sep 6, 2026

There is usually _____ before _____.

Jesus was _____ distressed, alarmed, troubled, and in _____ anguish.

Jesus says to his friends he is overwhelmed with sorrow (_____) to the point of _____.

Jesus turned to his friends but he found them _____.

Massive Truth: The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak.

Our spirits WANT to do life _____, but our flesh _____.

Problem: The disciples insisted they were willing to die with Jesus, but they couldn't even stay away to pray with him! _____.

Problem: Our flesh _____ over our spirit way too often. True 2,000 years ago and today.

Good news: Our Savior _____ what pain, loneliness, and anxiety are like. He _____ our weakness.

Great news: Our Savior _____ where we _____. He felt it all but never disobeyed or gave up.

COMING REALITY: My new body will still be _____, but it won't be sinful, and my Spirit will be stronger so that the things I want to do _____!!!

Practical Applications:

Practical Application 1:

GET IN AND STAY IN A GROWTH GROUP. Even _____.

Practical Application 2: When Jesus was in distress, he went to God in prayer, and he encouraged the disciples to do the same thing. _____ a habit of prayer.

Check out the book "Practicing the Way" by John Mark Comer or visit www.revo.church/prayer

Practical Application 3:

The closer I get to Christ right now the more powerful my Spirit will get. I can _____ _____ that used to defeat me, I can feel joy and peace where I used to have only fear. I should practice the disciplines in Comer's book.