The Jewish leadership already decided Jesus was guilty; they were just

_____.

There was no evidence against Jesus. So, then the _____ and made things up. But they couldn't even keep their lies about Jesus straight and they _____ each other.

Jesus _____ his _____ accusers just as the prophet Isaiah foretold (Isaiah 53:7).

The Sanhedrin condemned Jesus to death because he _____
_____. They did not want their _____ taken away.

THE BOOK OF MARK: Jesus is absolutely Lord of _____ – and he claimed it. The very son of God, _____, Messiah and Judge of the world.

Practical Application: The Sanhedrin were _____.

I cannot be offended by the truth, I must always be open to it and not closed off. My motives, feelings, or desires might cause me to see things in a distorted way. I should _____ me know and accept reality.

Practical Application:

I should recognize Jesus as Lord, and that he will be coming back “on the clouds” and at the right hand of God with all power and authority. I will _____
_____, and serve him. If I'm not baptized, I'll do it. If I'm not pursuing him I'll do it (www.revo.church/info).
